Responsibiity of the Directors with regards to the financial statements

The Directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the attached Financial Statements so as to faithfully express the assets, the financial status and the profit and loss account of ÁREA DE SERVICIO PUNTA UMBRÍA, S.L.U., in compliance with the Regulatory Framework for financial reporting applicable to the Company in Spain, as indicated in Note 2.1 of the attached notes. They are also responsible for the internal control considered necessary to enable the preparation of the Financial Statements free of material inaccuracy due to fraud or mistake.

Responsibiity of the auditor

Our responsibility is to express an opinion regarding the attached Financial Statements based on our audit report. We have audited in compliance with the Spanish accounts auditing regulations in force. Said regulations require ethics compliance, as well as planning and performance of the audit so as to reasonably ensure that the Financial Statements are free of material inaccuracy.

An audit report requires implementing the procedures to obtain audit evidence regarding the amounts and the information in the financial statements. The chosen procedures depend on the Auditor's decision, including the material inaccuracy risk assessment for the financial statements, due to fraud or mistake. When performing said risk assessments, the Auditor takes into consideration the internal control for the preparation of the Financial Statements by the Directors of the Company, with the goal of designing adequate auditing procedures depending on the circumstances, and not with the goal of expressing an opinion regarding the efficiency of the internal control of the Company. An audit report also includes the assessment of the suitability of the accounting policies applied and the reasonableness of the accounting estimations made by the management, as well as the assessment of the overall presentation of the financial statements.

We consider that the audit evidence obtained is enough reason for our qualified audit opinion.

Basis of qualified opinion

As indicated in Note 2.7 of the attached Notes, the Company has applied this year for the first time, the provisions of paragraph 3 of the valuation standard second sectorial adaptation of the Spanish General Accounting Principles for companies concessionaires of public infrastructures, approved by Order EHA / 3362/20 10 of 23 December, activation under the heading of "Administrative Concessions" excess that occurs between the financial expenses accrued in the year and the linear annual amount during the period of the concession based on the business plan for it. In this regard, the Company has recorded in the income statement for the year 2014 attached, by way of financial income, income earned in prior years amounting to 110,386 euros, without adapting the comparative information as required under the regulatory framework. Consequently, the results for the year 2014 are overstated by 177,411 euros and the Equity at beginning of year 2014 is undervalued in 177,

Opinion

In our opinion, except for the effect of the event described in the paragraph of "Basis for qualified opinion", the attached Financial Statements faithfully express, in all significant aspects, the assets, the financial status of the Company ÁREA DE SERVICIO PUNTA UMBRÍA, S.L.U. as of 31st December 2014, as well as its profit and loss account and cash flows corresponding to the financial year ending on said date, in compliance with the applicable Regulatory Framework for financial reporting and, in particular, with the accounting principles and criteria therein.

These abridged financial statements, which have been prepared by the Company Directors, will be submitted for the approval of the Sole Shareholder, and are expected to be approved without any amendment.

In compliance with article 257 of the Corporations Law, approved by Royal Legislative Decree 1/2010, of 2nd July, in effect since 1st September 2010, the Company prepares abridged financial statements.

According to corporate legislation in force, the Company has no obligation to submit their abridged financial statements for auditing; however, and for the sole purposes of improving transparency in financial reporting, the Administrative Body has deemed appropriate to bring these abridged financial statements for year 2013 for verification of an external auditor. 2.3 Non-obligatory accounting principles applied

Non-obligatory accounting principles have not been applied. In addition, the Directors have prepared these financial statements taking into consideration the totality of obligatory applicable accounting principles and standards which have a significant effect on said abridged financial statements. There is not any obligatory accounting principle that has not been applied.

2.4 Critical aspects of valuation and estimation of uncertainty

In preparing the accompanying abridged financial statements estimates were made by the Company's Directors in order to measure certain of the assets, liabilities, income, expenses and obligations reported herein. These estimates basically refer to the impairment of clients' invoices and the calculation of the provisions for creditors' invoices pending, as well as lifespan of the assets and the services provided during the financial year but pending invoice.

Although these estimates were made on the basis of the best information available at 2014 year-end, events that take place in the future might make it necessary to change these estimates (upwards or downwards) in coming years. Changes in accounting estimates would be applied prospectively.

2.5 Comparative information

The information contained in this abridged report referring to financial year 2014 is presented alongside the information for financial year 2013 only for comparative purposes.

2.6 Grouping of entries

Certain items in the balance sheet, income statement, statement of changes in equity and statement of cash flows are grouped together to facilitate their understanding; however, whenever the amounts involved are significant, the information is broken down in the related notes to the financial statements. There are not any equity items entered in two or more entries.

2.7 Change in accounting policies

The Company has applied in this period, for the first time, the valuation rule established in section 3 of the second rule of Sector Adaptation of the General Accounting Plan to public infrastructure concessionaire companies, approved by Order EHA/3362/2010 of 23 December, which establishes the capitalization of excess between accrued financial expenses and expenses attributed to the profit and loss account (see Note 4.1). As a result of the application of this rule, the excess in financial expenses registered in periods 2011, 2012 and 2013, amounting to 241,818 Euros, has been capitalized, and entered in the heading "Concessions" of the Intangible Fixed Assets of the Abridged Balance Sheet attached (see valuation rule Note 4.1 b) and Note 5).

2.8 Correction of errors

In preparing the accompanying abridged financial statements no significant errors were detected that would have made it necessary to restate the amounts included in the financial statements for 2013.

3. Distribution of profits

The proposal for the distribution of the profits of the period prepared by the Company's Directors and to be submitted for the approval of the General Board is the following:

	Euros
Distribution basis:
Profit and loss (Loss)	145,629
	145,629
Distribution:
To legal reserve	14,563
To voluntary reserves	34,508
To negative results from previous periods	96,558
	145,629

4. Accounting standards and measurement bases

The main accounting standards and measurement bases used by the Company in the preparation of their abridged financial statements, in accordance with those set out by the General Accounting Plan, were the following:

4.1 Intangible assets

The assets grouped under this heading are valued by their acquisition price or cost of production and subsequently reduced by the corresponding accrued amortization and losses through impairment, should there be any.

If there are indications of loss of value, the Company estimates by means of the "Impairment test" the possible losses of value that reduce the redeemable value of said assets to an amount below their book value.

Concessions:

a) Regulated assets

Sector Plan for public infrastructure concessionaire companies (in force since 1 January 2011) regulates agreements concerning service concession contracts; it establishes that by these contracts the grantor commissions to a concessionaire company the construction, including improvement and operation, or only operation of infrastructures for provision of public services of economic nature during the period of time established in the agreement, obtaining in exchange the right to a compensation.

Every concession agreement should comply with the following requirements:

The grantor controls or regulates the public services to be provided by the concessionaire company with the infrastructure, to whom these services will be provided and at which price; the grantor company controls any significant residual sharing in the infrastructure at the end of the term of the agreement.

In these concession agreements, the concessionaire acts as service supplier, specifically for construction services or infrastructure improvement services, and for operation and maintenance services during the term of the agreement. In exchange for the construction services or infrastructure improvement services, the concessionaire company receives a consideration equivalent to the fair value of said service, as intangible assets in those cases in which the right to charge a price to users for using the public service is received, and this right is not unconditional but conditional to the actual use of the service by the users.

The consideration for the construction or improvement works is entered as intangible asset in the entry "concession agreement, regulated asset", in the heading "Intangible assets" applying the model of intangible, in which the demand risk is assumed by the concessionaire.

The company calculates the amortization of the concession asset according to their best estimations.

b) Concession agreement, financial capitalization

When the compensation for construction or improvement services consists of an intangible asset, the financial expenses financing the infrastructure which are generated from the moment the infrastructure is ready to be operated are capitalized provided there is reasonable evidence of their recovery with future revenues. As for the future income, the percentage that operation income represents in each period compared to the total will be determined. That percentage will be applied to the total expected financial expenses during the concession period in order to determine the amount to be attributed to each economic period as financial expense of the period. If the amount of income in a period is higher than expected, the percentage mentioned will be determined in that period by the relation between real income and total expected income, which generally will produce an adjustment in the attribution of the last period. For each accounting year, the positive difference between the expected financial expense and the amount resulting from the previous number will be reflected in an entry of the asset whose amount will be attributed to the profit and loss account as financial expense of the period, starting from the period in which said difference is negative, and for the amount that results.

The amount capitalized in financial year 2014 as "Financial asset" in the heading "Concession" of the Intangible fixed asset of the attached abridged balance sheet, and deducted from the heading "Financial costs for debts with third parties" of the attached abridged profit and loss account in period 2014 by application of this rule amounted to 241,818 Euros. See Note 2.7, "Change in accounting policies".

4.2 Financial Instruments

4.2.1 Financial assets

Classification –

Financial assets of the Company are classified into loans and items receivable; they correspond to financial assets generated in the sale of goods or in the provision of services through the Company's trading operations, or those which do not have a commercial origin, are not equity instruments or derivatives and whose collections are a fixed or specific amount, not negotiated in an active market.

Initial recognition-

Financial assets are initially recognised at the fair value of the consideration given, plus any directly attributable transaction costs.

Subsequent measurement –

Loans, items receivable and investments maintained until maturity are valued by their amortized cost.

At least at the close of each period the Company tests financial assets not measured at fair value through profit or loss for impairment. Objective evidence of impairment is considered to exist when the recoverable amount of the financial asset is lower than its carrying amount. When it occurs, this impairment is entered in the profit and loss account.

The Company derecognises a financial asset when it expires or when the rights to the cash flows from the financial asset have been transferred and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset have been transferred.

However, the Company does not derecognise financial assets, and recognises a financial liability for an amount equal to the consideration received, in transfers of financial assets in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are retained.

4.2.2 Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are those debits and items payable that the Company has and which originate in the purchase of goods and services through the Company's trading operations, and also those which do not have a commercial origin and cannot be considered as derivative financial instruments.

Accounts payable are initially recognised at the fair value of the consideration received, adjusted by the directly attributable transaction costs. These liabilities are subsequently measured at amortised cost.

The Company derecognises financial liabilities when the obligations giving rise to them cease to exist.

4.2.3 Equity instruments

An equity instrument represents a residual sharing in the Company Equity once all liabilities have been deducted.

Capital instruments issued by the Company are entered in the net equity for the amount received, net of issuing costs.

4.2.4 Cash Flow Hedge

The Company uses derivative financial instruments in order to guarantee the risks to which it is exposed through its activities, operations and future cash flows. Fundamentally, these risks are variations in interest rates. In the context of said operations the Company contracts hedging financial instruments.

In order to classify these financial instruments as hedge book, they are initially designated as such, recording the hedge relationship. Similarly, the Company checks initially and periodically throughout their life (at least at the end of every period) that the hedge relation is effective, i.e. that it is expected, prospectively, that the changes in the reasonable value or in the cash flow of the item (attributable to the risk covered) are compensated almost completely by those of the hedging instrument and that, retrospectively, the hedge results have ranged between 80 and 125% in relation to the result of the item covered.

The Company applies cash flow hedge. In this type of hedge, the part of the gain or loss of the hedging instrument that has been determined as effective hedging instrument is temporarily included in the net equity, being allocated to the profit and loss account in the same accounting period in which the item that is hedged affects the result, unless the hedge relates to an anticipated transaction that might terminate in the entry of a non-financial asset or liability, in which case the amounts entered in the net equity are to be included in the cost of the asset or liability when acquired or assumed.

Accounting of hedging is suspended when the hedging instrument matures, or is sold, terminated or used, or fails to fulfil the accounting principles for hedging. At that time, any accrued profit or loss corresponding to the hedging instrument that has been entered in the net equity is held within the net equity until the expected operation occurs. When the operation that is being hedged is not expected to occur, the accrued net profits or losses accounted for in the net equity are transferred to the net results for the period.

4.3 Corporate tax

Tax expense (tax on profits) comprises current tax expense (current tax income) and deferred tax expense (deferred tax income).

The current tax expense is the amount payable by the Company as a result of tax on profits settlements for a given year. Tax credits and other tax benefits, excluding tax withholdings and pre-payments, as well as tax loss carryforwards from prior years effectively offset in the current year, reduce the current income tax expense.

The deferred tax expense or income relates to the recognition and derecognition of deferred tax assets and liabilities. These include temporary differences measured at the amount expected to be payable or recoverable on differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their tax bases, as well as the negative tax bases pending compensation and the credits for tax credit not fiscally applied. These amounts are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the period when the asset is realised or the liability is settled.

Deferred tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences, except for those arising from the initial recognition of goodwill or of other assets and liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and affects neither accounting profit nor taxable profit, and except for those associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures in which the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred tax assets, on the other hand, are only recognised to the extent that it is considered probable that the Company will have sufficient taxable profits in the future against which it will be possible to recover them.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities arising from transactions charged or credited directly to equity are also recognised directly in net equity.

4.4 Environment and greenhouse gas

Assets of environmental nature are those used long-term in the Company's activity. Their main purpose is the minimization of environmental impact and the protection and improvement of the environment, including the reduction or elimination of future pollution.

Due to its nature, the Company's activity does not have a significant environmental impact.

4.5 Revenue and expense

Revenue and expenses are recognised on an accrual basis, i.e. when the actual flow of the related goods and services occurs, regardless of when the resulting monetary or financial flow arises. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received, net of discounts and taxes, incorporated interests or similar items.

In order to adjust revenues in the period in which they are accrued, the Company adopts the principle of provisioning those projects in progress at the close of the period, in accordance with their level of advancement, notwithstanding the date of issue of the invoice.

4.6 Principles used in transactions between related parties

One party is considered linked to another when one of them or a group acting together exercises or has the power to exercise, directly or indirectly or in accordance with agreements between shareholders or participants, control over another or has significant influence over the other in the making of financial or operational decisions.

In any case, related parties are:

a) Companies which are considered to be a company of the group, associate or multi-group, in accordance with article 42 of the Commercial Code.

b) Natural persons who, directly or indirectly, hold participation in the voting rights of the Company, or in its dominant entity, to enable them to exercise a significant influence over one or another. Close relatives of these natural persons are also included.

c) The key staff of the Company or of its dominant entity, understood as the natural persons with authority and responsibility over the planning, management and control of the Company's activities, either directly or indirectly, including the directors and executive managers. Close relatives of these natural persons are also included.

d) Companies over which any of the persons mentioned in b) and c) above can exercise a significant influence.

e) Companies that share any director or manager with the Company; except in case this person does not have any significant influence in the financial and management policies of the Company.

f) Persons who are considered as close relatives of the Company administration's agent, if this person is a legal person.

g) The pension plans for the employees of the Company or of any other which is a party linked to this.

For the purposes of this rule, close relatives are understood to be those who could exercise influence in, or be influenced by, this person in his/her decisions relating to the Company. These include:

a) The spouse or person with an analogous relationship;

b) The ascendants, descendants and siblings and the respective spouses or persons with an analogous relationship;

c) The ascendants, descendants and siblings of the spouse or persons with an analogous relationship;

d) Persons for whom the spouse or person with an analogous relationship is responsible for or persons with an analogous relationship;

The Company carries out all its operations with entities linked to market values. In addition, transfer prices are adequately supported so that the Company Directors consider that there are not any significant risks related to this aspect from which liabilities for future consideration could be derived.

5. Intangible assets

7. Information on the nature and level of risk of financial instruments

The management of the financial risks of the Company is centralized in Financial Management, which has established the necessary mechanisms to control exposure to variations in the interest rates, as well as to the credit and liquidity risks. The main financial risks that impact on the Company are mentioned below:

a) Credit risk:

In general, the Company holds its treasury and equivalent liquid assets in financial bodies with a high credit level.

In addition, it must be pointed out that, despite the fact that it maintains a significant volume of operations with a reduced number of customers, their solvency is guaranteed, and therefore there is no high credit risk with third parties.

b) Liquidity risk:

In order to guarantee the liquidity and to be able to fulfil all the payment commitments deriving from its activity, the Company relies on the Treasury shown in its balance, as well as on short-term financial investments which are detailed in Note 6.

c) Market risk:

Both the Treasury and the financial debt of the Company are exposed to the interest rate risk, which could have an adverse effect on the financial results and on the cash flow. Therefore the Company follows the policy of investing in financial assets that are practically not exposed to interest rate risks and uses derivative financial instruments to cover the risks to which its activities, operations and future cash flows are exposed. On the other hand, the financial instruments used have been chosen for the solidity of their financial worth and the issuing institutions.

8. Derived financial instruments

The Company uses derivative financial instruments in order to guarantee the risks to which it is exposed through its activities, operations and future cash flows. In the context of said operations, the Company has contracted several hedging financial instruments according to the following detail:

					Reasonable value (Euros)
	Classification	Type	Amount contracted (Euros)	Expiration	Liabilities
Interest rate swap	Interest rate hedges	Variable to fixed	1,650,000	2019	175,955

The maturity of the hedging instruments occurs in the same period when the cash flows are expected to occur and affect the profit and loss account.

As a consequence of the evaluation in reasonable value of the derived financial instruments at close, the net equity of the Company has been decreased in 19,020 Euros, once deducted the tax impact in the period 2014 (increase of 41,448 Euros in 2013), accumulating a decrease in equity of 123,165 Euros at 31 December 2014 (104,145 Euros at 31 December 2013).

9. Own funds

9.1 Share capital

At the close of period 2014 the Company's share capital amounted to 1,003,010 Euros, represented by 100,301 shares of 10 Euros nominal value each, all of the same class, fully subscribed and paid in accordance with the following detail:

	% Participation
Elsamex, S.A.	100%
	100%

The totality of shares are pledged by a bank entity in guarantee of the loan granted.

9.2 Legal reserve

In accordance with the Consolidated Text of the Spanish Corporations Act, a figure equal to 10% of the period's profit must be allocated to the legal reserve until this reaches, at least, 20% of the share capital. Such reserve can be used to increase capital provided that the remaining reserve balance does not fall below 10% of the increased share capital amount. Otherwise, until the legal reserve exceeds 20% of share capital, it can only be used to offset losses, provided that sufficient other reserves are not available for that purpose.

10. Financial liabilities

The breakdown of the Company's financial liabilities is the following as of 31st December 2014 and 2013:

Under current legislation, taxes cannot be deemed to have been definitively settled until the tax returns filed have been reviewed by the tax authorities or until the four-year statute-of-limitations period has expired.

The Directors consider that the above-mentioned tax obligations have been adequately settled. Therefore, in the event of a fiscal inspection and considering there were any disagreements in the usual prevailing interpretation because of the fiscal treatment granted to operations, future resulting liabilities, if any, would not significantly affect these abridged financial statements.
